

Join us this 2024 Fall/Winter semester as we bring you the magic of theater in the form of a triple threat (acting, singing, and dancing) and tech 11-week program. At the end of your session, you will get the opportunity to perform all of your hard work at Full Expression's annual Celebrations Showcase!

Under the direction of Jess Pluta, Amanda Ercole, Savannah Svoboda, Allen Edwards, and Saja Butler, students will be guided through weekly lessons where they will work on their craft. Students will be encouraged and supported to lead the way while they find where they want to shine. Opportunities in performance, tech, writing, leadership, and more will be offered as well as plenty of time for fun, games, and the magic of the theater community.
